- As described to you when collecting your personal information or as otherwise set forth in the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 and the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020.

We will not collect additional categories of personal and/or sensitive personal information or use said information we collect for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Sharing and Selling of Personal and/or Sensitive Personal Information

We may disclose your personal and/or sensitive personal information with our service providers and third parties for a business purpose. When we disclose personal and/or sensitive personal information for a business purpose, we enter a contract that describes the purpose and requires the recipient to both keep that information confidential and not use it for any purpose except performing the contract. Colonial Savings, F.A. has not sold any of your personal and/or sensitive personal information.

Your Right to Obtain Information

You have the right to inquire about our collection and use of personal and/or sensitive personal information over the past twelve (12) months. Once we receive, confirm, and verify your request, we will disclose to you:

- The categories of personal and/or sensitive personal information we collected about you.
- The categories of sources for the personal and/or sensitive personal information we collected about you.
- Our business or commercial purpose for collecting that personal and/or sensitive personal information.
- The categories of third parties with whom we shared that personal and/or sensitive personal information.
- The specific pieces of personal and/or sensitive personal information we collected about you.
- If we sold or disclosed your personal and/or sensitive personal information for a business purpose, the personal and/or sensitive personal information categories that each category of recipient obtained.
- Whether your information is sold or shared.
- The retention period or criteria used for retention.

Your Right to Request Deletion

You have the right to request that we delete any of your personal and/or sensitive personal information that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable consumer request, we will: (1) delete (and direct our service providers to delete) your personal information from our records, unless an exception applies; and (2) notify all third parties to whom we have sold or shared your personal and/or sensitive personal information, if such information was shared or sold to a third party, to delete said information, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort.

For example, and without limitation, we may deny your deletion request if retaining the information is necessary for us or our service providers to:

- Provide a good or service that you requested, take actions reasonably anticipated within the context of our ongoing business relationship with you, perform our contact with you, enforce any obligations, or defend against possible litigation.
- Comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act.
- Comply with other legal obligations or make other internal and lawful uses of the information that are compatible with the context in which you provided it.

Right to Correct

If you believe Colonial maintains inaccurate personal information about you, you have the right to request that the information be corrected. To the extent such requests to correct information also implicate federal laws such as the Fair Credit Reporting Act or the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act, we abide by whichever time frames are shorter.

Right to Non-Discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your rights.

To Exercise your Rights

To exercise your rights as described above:

- Call 800-937-6002
- Go to www.gocolonial.com

Only you, or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a request to your personal and/or sensitive personal information. You may also make a request on behalf of your minor child.

Please see our California Privacy Policy for additional information.
