Dear Caroline,

We're so grateful for supporters like you who invest in the meaningful and impactful work we do at Junior Achievement.

One recent snapshot of JA's impact on young people can be seen in the following:

- 40 middle schoolers explored careers, engaging with HR professionals at the Gaylord Texan
- 205 high school entrepreneurs competed in a Product Innovation Challenge at TTI, Inc.
- 600 students learned how to be smart with money through volunteers at a JA in a Day
- 500 elementary students explored careers with a fighter pilot, chef, engineer, librarian, and more
- 600 high schoolers participated in our Career Expo with 54 local employers exhibiting

We appreciate your contribution to Junior Achievement of the Chisholm Trail in the amount of $4,000.00, which ignites the spark in young people to experience and realize the opportunities that prepare them for their future success.

Thank you for your unwavering commitment to our mission as we empower students with practical knowledge so they develop both the skillset and mindset to build thriving communities!

Sincerely,

Cindy Hames
President

Very much appreciated!
